

ATOMO DIAGNOSTICS LIMITED (ACN 142 925 684)

Corporate Governance Statement

This Corporate Governance Statement is current as at 31 March 2020.

In February 2020, Atomo Diagnostics Limited (Atomo) converted from being a private company to being a public company. In recognition of Atomo's increased responsibilities as a public company and its intention to submit an application for admission to the Official List of the Australian Securities Exchange, in early 2020, Atomo refreshed its Board of Directors, expanded its executive team and significantly enhanced its governance framework. Atomo's Board is committed to continuing this work and bringing Atomo's governance practices into alignment with each of the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council in the 4th edition of its Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Recommendations).

This Corporate Governance Statement discloses the extent to which Atomo will, as at the date it is admitted to the official list of the ASX, follow the Recommendations. The Recommendations that will not be followed have been identified and reasons for not following them have been provided.

All Charters and Policies referenced in this Statement are available on Atomo's website.

RECOMMENDATION	COMMENT
PRINCIPLE 1 - LAY SOLID FOUNDATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT AND OVERSIGHT
1.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and(b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	The Board has adopted a written Board Charter which sets out those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management. The Board Charter is available on Atomo's website. The Board is responsible for the overall operation and stewardship of Atomo. The Board's objectives are to advance Atomo's strategic direction in all of its day to day activities in a way that: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) provides clear accountability;(b) protects the rights and interests of shareholders and other stakeholders;(c) provides for proper management of Atomo's assets;(d) supports the achievement of Atomo's fiduciary, environmental, health, safety, social and other obligations;(e) preserves and enhances Atomo's reputation and standing in the community; and(f) supports the achievement of shareholder value within a framework of appropriate risk assessment and management.

		In general, the Board is responsible for, and has the authority to determine, all matters relating to Atomo's planning, policies and practices. The Board is responsible for Atomo's overall corporate governance and successful operation. It establishes goals for management and ensures that Atomo is managed in a manner consistent with the agreed objectives. The Managing Director is appointed by the Board and is responsible for the ongoing management of Atomo in accordance with the strategy, policies and programs approved by the Board. The Board may replace the Managing Director where necessary. The Board formally delegates to the Managing Director the power to authorise all expenditure provided for in the budget previously approved by the Board, except: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Managing Director remuneration outside of normal monthly remuneration, which must be authorised by the Board; (b) business related expenses paid to the Managing Director, which must be authorised or ratified by the Board; and (c) the terms and conditions under which individuals are appointed to specific management roles by the Managing Director, which must be approved by the Board.
	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director. 	As part of Atomo's application for admission to the Official List of ASX, each Director provided to Atomo a national criminal history check obtained from the Australian Federal Police and a search of the Australian National Personal Insolvency Index. In addition, each Director who had in the past 10 years been a resident of a country other than Australia, provided an equivalent national criminal history check and an equivalent national bankruptcy check for each country in which the Director resided. Each Director of Atomo also made, and provided to Atomo and ASX, a statutory declaration which included confirmation that the Director had not been the subject of any criminal or civil penalty proceedings or other enforcement action by any government agency in which they were found to have engaged in behaviour involving fraud, dishonesty, misrepresentation, concealment of material facts or breach of duty. Atomo's Prospectus disclosed all material information in Atomo's possession relating to each Director. In Atomo's Board Charter, the Board commits to undertaking appropriate checks including character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history to determine whether or not to recommend a Director to shareholders for election or re-election or to appoint a Director to fill a casual vacancy. The Charter also confirms the Board's commitment to providing shareholders with all material information in Atomo's possession

		relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director. Under its Charter, the Board's Nomination and Remuneration Committee (see Recommendation 2.1 below), has responsibility for ensuring that appropriate checks are undertaken before nominating an individual as a candidate for appointment to the Board. Atomo will ensure that prior to appointing a senior executive, appropriate checks are undertaken.
	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Atomo has a written agreement with each Director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment. Each Executive Director and senior executive of Atomo has entered into a written employment contract with Atomo or one of its group companies setting out the terms of their employment. The Board's Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for overseeing the process of appointment and remuneration of Non-Executive Directors, the Managing Director, the CFO (or equivalent), and other senior executives of Atomo.
	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Atomo's Board Charter provides that the Board has reserved to itself the appointment, and removal, of the Company Secretary and the determination of their remuneration and conditions of service, including any financial incentives. The Board Charter also provides that the Company Secretary is responsible for developing and maintaining the information systems and processes required such that the Board can fulfil its role and is directly accountable to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters relating to the proper functioning of the Board. The Board's Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for overseeing the process of appointment and remuneration of the Company Secretary.
	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period:	Atomo has adopted a Diversity Policy which sets out Atomo's commitment to diversity, encouraging inclusive workplace practices and behaviours and fostering a work environment that values the contributions of employees with diverse backgrounds, experiences and perspectives through improved awareness of the benefits of workforce diversity and successful management of diversity. Atomo's Board Charter provides that the composition of the Board must demonstrate an appropriate mix of skills, experience, diversity and knowledge to discharge its responsibilities and objectives.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) the measurable objectives set for that period for to achieve gender diversity; (2) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (3) either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (B) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. 	The responsibilities of the Board's Nomination and Remuneration Committee include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) identifying and evaluating the necessary and desirable skills, experience and diversity of the Board and Board Committees; (ii) developing criteria for the selection of candidates for the Board in the context of the Board's existing composition and structure in light of its desired mix of skills, experience and diversity; (iii) identifying any deficiencies in the composition of the Board in light of its collective desired mix of skills, experience and diversity; (iv) making recommendations to the Board on the appointment, re-election and removal of Directors in light of the Board's current skills, experience and diversity; and (v) developing a succession plan for the Board with a view to maintaining an appropriate balance of skills, experience and diversity. The Board is responsible for developing measurable objectives and strategies to meet the objectives of the Diversity Policy and to ensure that the Policy aligns with Atomo's values including measurable objectives (such as numerical targets) for achieving gender diversity in the composition of the Board, Senior Executives and the workforce generally (Measurable Objectives). It is also responsible for reviewing annually both the Measurable Objectives and Atomo's progress in achieving the Measurable Objectives, through the monitoring, evaluation and reporting mechanisms listed below. Atomo will conduct an annual review of the proportion of women and men employed by Atomo on the Board, in senior management positions and across the workforce generally and the results will be reported to the Board. In accordance with Recommendation 1.5, Atomo will report each year on the diversity objectives set by Atomo and progress towards achieving them and on the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation.
	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period. 	Atomo's Board Charter provides that the Board will undertake an assessment and review of the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors at least annually. Atomo's Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for reviewing and making recommendations to the Board in respect of the development and implementation of a process for evaluating the performance of the Board, Board committees and individual Directors. In accordance with Recommendation 1.6, Atomo will disclose the process adopted for evaluating the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors and disclose in relation to each reporting period, whether or not a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.

	A listed entity should: (d) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (e) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	The Charter of Atomo's Nomination and Remuneration Committee provides that the Committee will make recommendations to the Board on the criteria for the evaluation of the performance of the Managing Director and any other executive director. Atomo is committed to aligning its performance evaluation processes in respect of all senior executives with this recommendation. In accordance with Recommendation 1.7, Atomo will disclose for each reporting period the process adopted for periodically evaluating the performance of Atomo's senior executives and whether or not a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.
PRINCIPLE 2 - STRUCTURE THE BOARD TO BE EFFECTIVE AND ADD VALUE
	The board of a listed entity should: (f) have a nomination committee which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (g) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	The Board has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee which comprises three non-executive directors who are considered by the Board to be independent – Connie Carnabuci, Paul Kasian and John Keith (Chairman of the Board). Connie Carnabuci is the Chair of the Committee. The Charter of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is available on Atomo's website. Atomo has disclosed the members of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee in its Prospectus. Atomo will disclose as at the end of each reporting period, in its annual report, the members of the Committee and the number of times the Committee met throughout the reporting period and the individual attendances of the members of the Committee at those meetings.

	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Atomo does not yet have a formal skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board seeks to achieve in its membership. It intends to develop its skills matrix and disclose details of the Board's skills matrix in its annual corporate governance statement. The responsibilities of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • develop criteria for the selection of candidates for the Board in the context of the Board's existing composition and structure in light of its desired mix of skills, experience and diversity; • identify any deficiencies in the composition of the Board in light of its collective desired mix of skills, experience and diversity and whether such deficiencies should be addressed by further professional development or the appointment or removal of a Director; • make recommendations to the Board on the appointment, re-election and removal of Directors in light of the Board's current skills, experience and diversity; and • develop a succession plan for the Board with a view to maintaining an appropriate balance of skills, experience and diversity.
	A listed entity should disclose: (h) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (i) if a director has an interest, position, or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (j) the length of service of each director.	Atomo's Board comprises five Directors including one Managing Director: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • John Keith, Chairman; • John Kelly, Managing Director; • Curt LaBelle; • Paul Kasian; and • Connie Carnabuci. Atomo's Board Charter provides that as a general principle, independent Directors are those who are free of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of Atomo as a whole rather than the interests of an individual shareholder or third party. The Charter provides that the approach and attitude of a non-executive Director is a critical factor in determining his or her independence and the factors relevant to assessing the independence of a non-executive Director include if the Director: (a) is not or does not represent a substantial shareholder of the Company or has not, within the last three years, been an Officer of, an employee of, or professional advisor to a substantial shareholder of the Company (as defined in section 9 of the Corporations Act); (b) has not, within the last three years, been employed in an executive capacity by the Company or another Group member, or been a Director after ceasing to hold any

		such employment; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (c) receives performance based remuneration (including options or performance rights) or participates in an employee incentive scheme of the Company; (d) is not, or has not within the last three years been, a material supplier, professional adviser, consultant or customer of the Company or other Group member, or an Officer of or otherwise associated, directly or indirectly, with a material supplier, professional adviser, consultant or customer; (e) has close personal ties with any person who falls within the categories described above; (f) has not served on the Board for a period in the past which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, compromise the Director's independence or materially interfere with the Director's ability to act in the current best interests of the Company; and (g) is free from any interest and any business, familial, friendship, social other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the Director's ability to act in the best interests of the Company. Atomo has disclosed in the Prospectus the Directors considered by the Board to be independent. Three of Atomo's Directors are considered to be independent – John Keith, Paul Kasian and Connie Carnabuci. Atomo's Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for assessing at least annually, or more frequently if a Director's material interests or affiliations have changed, the independence of individual Directors and making recommendations to the Board as to whether or not a Director's status as an independent Director has changed. The Board has not characterised John Kelly as independent by virtue of his executive position and being a substantial shareholder. As Dr LaBelle is President of GHIF, a substantial shareholder of Atomo, Dr LaBelle is not classified by the Board as independent. Atomo's Board Charter provides that each Non-Executive Director must provide to the Board all information relevant to the assessment of his or her independence and must disclose to the Board any actual, perceived or potential conflicts of interest or duty, or matter that may bear on their independence and might reasonably be thought to exist as soon as the situation arises. If a Director's independent status changes, this will be immediately disclosed and explained in an announcement to ASX.
